TriYoga Flows with Kali Ray a Wonderful Experience

Founder of the TriYoga method, Kali Ray made many students very happy at our biggest event of the year in Davis and Sacramento in November. See photos of the three-day event. We are already planning the next one for Fall of 2010.

other back-of-the-leg stretches are the main focus of this class, we understand that each body section is part of the whole. In order to free these posterior thigh muscles, asanas that open the hips and quads are also included. The workshop is sequenced to gently prepare the body for the more intense stretches, later in the class. The fee is $45 for the workshop that is scheduled from 1-4pm on Sunday Dec 13 at Kamala's home studio.

Learn to Meditate

Prana Vidya starts in January

Learn to meditate through the practice of breathing and focusing the mind. Through this systemetized method of pranayama, mudra, dharana (breathing, hand gestures and light-sound visualizations) it's easy to find that quiet, peaceful place where the mind is still. It is as if the meditation just happens to us when we follow the sequences that Kali Ray has developed!
